

The Cabinet Office's Think Tank

Economic and Social Research Institute

Research

- ESRI conducts theoretical and empirical research to support the formulation and planning of economic and fiscal policy as well as social policy, and is engaged in disseminating its research products and raising public awareness.
- ESRI undertakes collaboration projects jointly with economists and issues "Discussion Papers", etc.

ESRI International Conference "Toward Revitalization of the Japanese Economy: The Role of Policy in the Global Economy" (May 30th and 31st, 2013)

GDP ; ESRI Compiles Various Statistics

National Accounts of Japan (SNA)

The National Accounts provide a systematic picture of Japan's economic situation. The National Accounts are estimated on the basis of the international standard recommended by the United Nations.

Quarterly Estimates of GDP

This provides the preliminary figures of GDP by quarter on expenditures approach such as consumption, investment, etc.

Annual Report on National Accounts

This is the annual report including flow variables such as production, expenditure, distribution, and stock variables such as assets and liabilities.

Business Statistics

Orders Received for Machinery

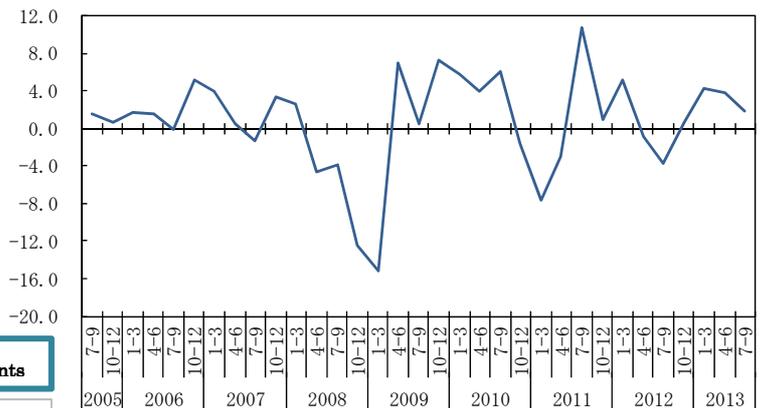

Indexes of Business Conditions

Consumer Confidence Survey

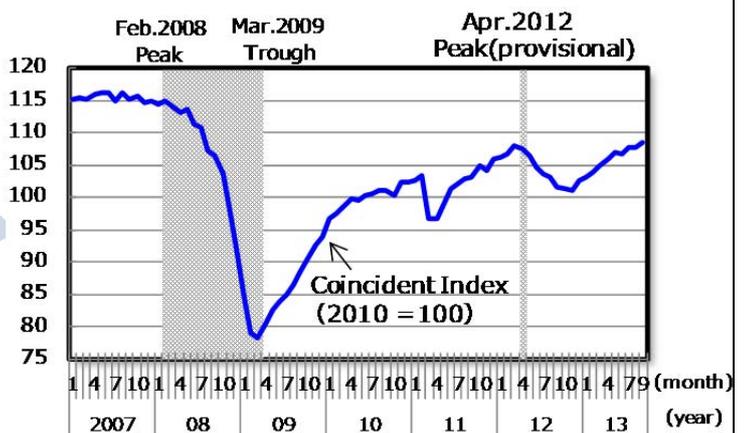

Business Outlook Survey
Annual Survey of Corporate Behavior

For details → <http://www.esri.go.jp/index-e.html>

Annualized rate of changes from the previous quarter (seasonally adjusted series) (%)

In light of the discussion of the Committee for Business Cycle Indicators held on August 21st, 2013, the President of ESRI has provisionally determined that a peak in business activities occurred in the Japanese economy in April 2012.

Notes: The shaded area denotes a recessionary period.